Hon. Leevin Taitano Camacho
Attorney General of Guam

Rinext Riosen found guilty for all counts of criminal sexual conduct; special allegation enhancements

December 27, 2021- Tamuning, Guam - Following trial, a Superior Court of Guam jury found Rinext Riosen guilty of three counts of First Degree Criminal Sexual Conduct for engaging in sexual penetration with a minor under 14 years of age and three counts of Second Degree Criminal Sexual Conduct, all carrying special allegation enhancements.

He faces life imprisonment.

The young victim told the jury that she was molested beginning at the age of six, and testified that it only ended when she became pregnant at the age of 11.

Riosen will be sentenced on April 27, 2022 before Presiding Judge Alberto C. Lamorena III.

Prosecuting Attorney Sean Brown said, "The bravery of this young victim and the hard work of law enforcement personnel made the outcome of this case possible. The unfathomable actions of this defendant has forced the victim to deal with the consequences for the rest of her life, so it's only fitting that he faces a lifetime sentence. We hope he will never harm another child of our community again."
